ODYSSEUS & ATHENA is a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation and appreciation of Greek's unique cultural heritage.

Our objective is to reach the countless number of people worldwide who are passionate about Greek history and culture, work together for the conservation of Greek outstanding cultural treasures, the investment in cultural heritage assets as tools for sustainable development and the discovery of ways in which IT technologies either influences or creates culture. And the most powerful tools to achieve our goals are education and new technologies.
